

Karibuni sana - Welcome

Situated in Dar-es-Salaam, Tanzania, Matatizo Multimedia Productions Company (MMPC) offers a broad range of media services. We are a local service provider for international TV and media companies and serve the local market with new content for Tanzania's television, video and film productions. We produce and co-produce documentaries, reports, news and features as well as commercials and talk shows.

Since 2002 MMPC offers editorial services, professional equipment, good contacts, insider know-how and assistance in all organisational and bureaucratic matters.

Extensive knowledge and expertise gained from producing for and within the European (especially the German) and East African media market gives us the most needed experience to facilitate working for you.

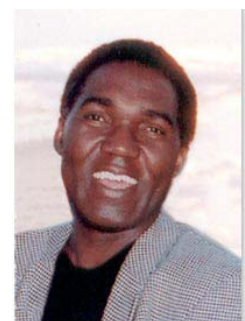

Furthermore, we co-operate in fostering education of local Film and TV specialists through practical training in the areas of camera, sound, edition, production and directing.

David Kyungu

The creative head behind MMPC is David Kyungu, an internationally renowned award winning journalist and filmmaker.

Born in Tanzania, David studied and worked as a journalist in Germany for 21 years. He returned to Tanzania in 2002 to contribute to the young East African media market.
